Plans to assist George owners in finally selling the building

THE HISTORIC TOWN CENTRE HOTEL CLOSED ITS DOORS EIGHT YEARS AGO

TOWN, district and county councillor Andrew Moulding is masterminding an attempt to have the George Hotel building in Axminster de-listed to make it more attractive to investors/developers.

With the owner's permission, he has invited East Devon District Council deputy chief executive Richard Cohen and senior planners to have a look inside the Grade II Listed building.

The George Hotel's most recent tenant left in late 2008, and there has been no commercial activity since.

The building was sold in 2010 but the new owner put it on the market some time ago.

Hope was raised in December last year when Axminster Property, a division of Axminster Tools and Machinery Ltd, revealed it had looked at the site with a particular client in mind and shared an architect's impression.

This was followed by an alternative design with a different scheme in mind.

But the company says nothing has happened since.

Councillor Moulding said: "It is a Grade II listed building, which would cause problems for a development of the type Axminster Property put forward. As it stands, I can't see anyone buying it to use it in its current state."

Councillor Moulding, who is also a leading member of Axminster Community Enterprise, added: "Is it in such a state that all you can do is to knock it down and rebuild it or leave the façade and build behind it?"

"We are anxious to have a look at interiors and features that are part of the listing.

"We want to establish what we are permitted to do from a planning system point of view."

Back in December last year, Axminster Tools and Machinery Director of Product Ian Styles said: "We were horrified at the structural issues that are hidden away in a very old Grade II listed building.

"The structural issues and general state of the building need considerable funds just to return it to status quo let alone create a structure that would stand up to the next 50 years without major intervention."

The future of the building is a constant matter of concern during town council meetings, raised by both town councillors and residents.

Applications for de-listings are made to Historic England, and the whole process can take up to 20 weeks.

Councillor Moulding told Pulman's View that a date for the tour of the building is yet to be decided.

From the editor's chair The George: majestic but forlorn

WHEN I first started reporting on the Axminster patch, back in the day, The George Hotel was the very epicentre of social life for the residents of the town.

With its unique Adam Room, it's where all the main functions were held.

On market days it's where the farmers would take advantage of the silver service menu at lunchtimes, as well as the obligatory visit to the Axminster Inn.

As a young reporter, I attended hundreds of meetings at The George. On one occasion I organised a harvest auction with Frank Rowe wielding his gavel for a charity cause which I can't remember.

There was something about the building which reeked of history.

Since those days The George has had a varied history and now stands forlorn in the centre of town, crying out for a new owner.

Hopefully, however, a move by town, district and county councillor Andrew Moulding to get the building de-listed will help with finding a suitable purchaser, who may be able to return it to its former glory or at least give it a future, eliminating another eyesore that has plagued that part of Axminster for so long.

I imagine there is little hope of it returning as an hotel but hopefully its impressive exterior can be retained in some form or other.

It would also be good if the Adam Room, with its unique minstrel gallery, could be retained.

Axminster Tool & Machinery Ltd offshoot Axminster Property took a look at the building last year for possible development but were horrified by the condition of the building's interior.

Hopefully, Historic England, the body which controls listed buildings, can be persuaded to relax some of the planning issues that might prevent a sale. Whoever takes it on will need very deep pockets to retain its impressive look and deal with the internal conversion.

It is to be hoped that a way can be found to protect the majestic presence of such an important building and its fate does not end up as someone suggested to me this week: "Pull it down and make a roundabout!"

SOUTH SOMERSET Council lobbies government over £24M overspend

SOMERSET County Council has called for help in putting collective pressure on the government as it wrestles with the impact of falling funding and increasing costs.

Council leader John Osman wrote to the Prime Minister last week setting out the huge pressures facing the county council as it looks to reduce a significant projected overspend this year.

Somerset's Cabinet discussed the council's first quarter financial report, which forecasts an in-year overspend of £24million if the current rates of spending are to continue for the rest of the year.

The biggest projected overspends are in adult social care (£12.8million), and children's services (£9.5million).

The council expects to lose a further £40million of direct government funding by 2020/2021.

SEATON Tramway to receive £1million gift

SEATON Tramway is to receive a massive donation in memory of former chairman Trevor Shears. His widow Lyn Shears has pledged a donation to the charity totaling £1million over several instalments.

Mr Shears had a long-standing involvement with the tramway stretching back to 1977 – first as a volunteer, then as a director from 1991 and chairman from 2005 until his death in 2014.

She added: "Trevor was determined to make this project happen and I'm proud to make this donation in his memory."

In Loving Memory Of Nancy Benfield 11/12/27 - 08/10/15

We shared a wonderful time together full of love, trust and understanding
I thank you for that. I miss you more than ever, I am lost.

Don't grieve for me, don't break the heart
That ever bears my name,
Soft summer green may turn to gold
But love will still remain.

Would I betray you now, my love,
because my race is run?
Do we not share the good and ill
And face the world as one?

The arms that held you hold you, still,
The knowing eyes still shine,
And I am yours in bond and vow
And you forever mine.

There lies your strength against the tears,
Your power against the pain,
A page may turn, a chapter close,
But Love will still remain.

I Love you, Bob

Sixteen animals killed after wall collapses

AN AXMINSTER family woke up last Friday morning to find a large wall had collapsed onto their smallholding – where they keep chickens and other animals.

Joy and Peter Crosby say that 14 chickens, one cockerel and one rabbit were killed and buried in the rubble. A children's football goal was also crushed when the wall came down.

Mr and Mrs Crosby live in Lyme Road and say the wall belongs to the neighbouring Magnolia House Care Home.

Mr Crosby said he heard a noise around midnight but thought no more of it at the time.

But when he ventured into the garden last Friday morning, he had a very nasty surprise and reacted by saying: "Oh my God, have you seen the wall?"

Mrs Crosby said: "We don't know how it happened, maybe a car backed into it."

She said: "It is horrible to know that our animals are below that rubble. Peter thought he heard chirping, but only found feathers."

They have two children living at home, aged 12 and four.

Looking at the crushed football goal, Mrs Crosby added: "It could have been one of our children."

A plastic fence has been erected in the Magnolia House car park, but the Crosbys are unhappy with the response from the company and have sought legal advice.

Magnolia House Care Home was purchased by The Adelaide Lodge Care Home LLP in September 2009.

Pulman's View has made repeated attempts to obtain comment from Magnolia House management and The Adelaide Lodge Care Home LLP without success.

Sir Neville dies at the age of 92

TRIBUTES have been paid to world-famous music conductor Sir Neville Marriner, who died on October 2nd at the age of 92.

Sir Neville was born in Lincoln but lived in East Devon for the last 42 years.

At the time of his death he lived just outside Axminster, a town he was deeply involved with.

He was a patron of Axminster Heritage, a keen supporter of Axminster and District Choral Society and, for several years, used to bring Academy of St Martin in the Fields musicians to the town every summer as part of a cricket week.

Members of Axminster and District Choral Society were deeply saddened to hear of the death.

A spokesperson for the choral society said: "Sir Neville was an active supporter of the society and a frequent member of the audience at concerts.

"In June 2010 he conducted a memorable performance of Mozart's Requiem in the Minster."

Alan Bulmer, who was chairman of the society for many years, said: "Sir Neville always came and listened and had a close relationship with the choir. He will be missed."

Paying tribute on social media, former Axminster mayor Jeremy Walden said: "It is with deepest sadness that we note the death of Sir Neville Marriner.

"Whilst he will be known worldwide for his founding of Academy of St Martin in the Fields, and his subsequent work with them, he will also be fondly remembered here in Axminster.

"His love of cricket, the support he gave to Axminster Cricket Club and the friendlies he arranged are well remembered in the town. Our thoughts are with Molly and his family."

Sir Neville founded the touring and recording chamber orchestra The Academy of St Martin in the Fields in 1958.

Academy music director Joshua Bell said: "I am deeply saddened by the news of Sir Neville Mar-riners passing. He was one of the most extraordinary human beings I have ever known.

"I will remember him for his brilliance, his integrity, and his humour, both on and off the concert platform.

"Maestro Marriner will always be the heart and soul of the Academy of St Martin in the Fields, and we musicians of the orchestra will miss him dearly."

Academy Chairman Paul Aylyeff said: "We are greatly saddened by the news.

"Sir Neville's artistic and recording legacy, not only with the academy but with orchestras and audiences worldwide is immense.

"He will be greatly missed by all who knew and worked with him and the academy will ensure it continues to be an excellent and fitting testament to Sir Neville."

The statement also said that the Marriner family is very touched by all the messages of sympathy.

Honoured three times for his services to music in this country – most recently being made a Companion of Honour by Her Majesty The Queen in June 2015 – Sir Neville Marriner has also been awarded honours in France, Germany and Sweden.

Hospital beds still set to close

HOSPITAL beds are still set to close despite a public lobby at a recent board meeting.

At the NEW Devon CCG meeting on September 28th representatives of patient groups and town and district councillors packed into the room to try and convince the board to change its mind.

One of Honiton's district councillors Mike Allen said: "So much for fair public 'consultation' – this is an appalling imposition of cuts and an insult to friends of the hospitals involved."

"It is a major blow to those in rural areas as well as a slap in the face to all residents and consultees. What's more it will only save 0.004 per cent of the money needed."

The CCG needs to save around £400million and sees the hospital beds closure as one cost cutting measure.

Mayor of Honiton, Cllr Caroline Kolek said she was saddened by the news: "Our current hospital was only opened in 1996 and 20 years later we are to lose our beds."

"A hospital is not a hospital without beds, it's just a medical centre."

"I am worried this is just the start with the maternity unit and outpatient services to follow."

"Given the age profile of Honiton and the surrounding area, not having medical beds where older patients can be near home and their loved one is madness. Only five months ago we raised £3,000 for a relatives' room, what a waste of time, hard work, money and resources."

"I hope this is reimbursed so the money can go to another good cause serving our community."

One outcome from the meeting which has been called a major commitment, was that until the proposed home care arrangements were in place and working there would be no bed closures.

Cllr Allen said: "This is a major commitment since it may take years to put the staff and IT systems in place and make them operational."

Unison trade union have heavily criticised the consultation with staff saying: "The Government are asking more and more of our NHS staff, but current funding can't go any further. The crisis in social care is hitting hospitals, and with up to 600 fewer beds, services for sick and vulnerable people will be under pressure like never before."

Hospital beds in Ottery St Mary and Axminster have already closed with beds in Sidmouth and Seaton also facing closure, depending on the outcome of a public consultation starting this week.

COMPLETE Meats played host to 30 or so Danish butchers who visited East Devon with the help of National Federation of Meat and Food Traders (NFMFT).

Shaun and Cindy Vining of Complete Meats welcomed the group to the company's base at Millwey Rise in Axminster.

Mr Vining told the visitors: "Our modern facility has enabled us to serve our catering customers more efficiently and has given us dedicated space to develop our own range of dry aged beef, charcuterie, pies and award winning dry cured bacon, hams and sausages."

A first generation butcher, Shaun was coaxed into the meat trade as a lad helping out an uncle with a shop in Somerset.

Following a spell at Smithfield College, London, a year travelling and unable to go into farming, Shaun took on a shop in South Street, Axminster, in 1989.

He has since expanded with branches in Honiton, Chard and the unit on the edge of Axminster.

The Danes moved on to visit Peter Lane's Pitfield Farm in Cotleigh viewing Aberdeen Angus, Dexter, Galloway and Highland cattle before a talk about the local terrain from countryside expert Dr David Allen and lunch at The Sidmouth Arms, Upottery.

The day trip was finished off with an outing to Honiton for a visit to the Complete Meats branch there, a spot of shopping and a tour of the town before visitors returned to their hotel in Sidmouth.

Drama club scores another hit with 'A Better You'

FOLLOWING the fabulous musical production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat by the Axminster Drama Club Youth back in July, the more mature section of the society had a lot to live up to with their most recent stage offering and returned to the tried and tested formula of fast paced comedy slapstick for their show last week.

For their latest stage foray the multiple-award-winning local group chose A Better You by Mark C Bourne, which follows five very different women who meet up once a week to arrange fetes, cake stalls and the like, and although they all hail from very different worlds, the close friends share the trials and tribulations of their lives.

We joined them on an evening in which their usual group leader has popped off for another facelift and arranged for a motivational speaker (Cathy-Anne, with a hyphen, played by Sara Leat) from the 'A Better You' organisation to enlighten them with her pearls of wisdom on becoming more confident and successful.

Leat was exceptionally engaging as the prim and not altogether stable speaker, who quickly turned from presenter to psycho chocoholic and then corpse before the gathered throng, who were then left to deal with the consequences. Leading the charge was Constance, played with panache and style by Carol Shute, who took control and imposed her excellent organisational skills on the rest of the party. Her main ally, the sterling Niclaire Skye as Bella, a tough Glaswegian whose biker husband has abandoned her for a very different ride, helped to extricate the body into the ladies' lounge while they decided, along with the rest of the calamitous circle, on the best course of action. The pair was hampered by a big dose of decrepit doolally from Mildred, played with perfect deadpan by Tracey Wakeling, with the addition of a productive cough and her well-known brand of ascerbic wit, as well as the nervous and neurotic schoolmistress played with an energetic, jittery jumpiness by Frances Rogers.

Eileen Stuart and Mike Spellar gave a bit of glamour by briefly turning the stage into a bit of a Strictly Ballroom to make the proceedings all the more complicated and then there was the geeky, butcher-loving Josie, played by Josie Cable, whose skirt was reminiscent of a psychedelic hallucination and whose innocent demeanor and hidden dark side were portrayed with huge professionalism by the young actress in what felt like a comedy masterclass.

This was another fantastic production from one of the best dramatic associations in the area and I will look forward to seeing their next production, the pantomime Robinson Crusoe, next year.

Have you lost these photos?

STAFF at Axminster Post Office are really keen to reunite two old photos with their rightful owner.

The black and white photos, quite possibly of sentimental value to their owner, were found on the floor of the post office about a month ago.

Staff have displayed the photos at the counters in the hope of the owner calling in again and claiming them.

Branch manager Kerry Morgan said: "It looks like they have fallen out of somebody's pocket. Customers keep saying it is a shame the owner has not been found."

One photo is of a couple, the other one being a close-up of the woman.

There is no date on the photos, but they could have been taken in the 1940s or 1950.

Anybody who recognises the couple or has any other information that could help find the owner, is asked to call in at Axminster Post Office or call 01297 33244.

Christopher does the double

■ CHRISTOPHER Parker, aged eight, has gained his second Gold Book Track Award at Axminster Library.

The Axminster Community Primary Academy pupil particularly enjoyed reading Tom Gates, the PIG books and Beast Quest.

Library assistant Sarah Jones said: "To read and discuss 100 books once is amazing, but to do it twice is awesome."

In addition to his gold badge and certificate, Christopher received a goodie bag including vouchers from Archway Bookshop, Flamingo Pool and Pecorama.

GP to tackle mountain and marathon for charity

A SEATON GP is set for a busy and demanding October, having undertaken the challenge to climb Mount Kilimanjaro (5,895M) and run a marathon.

Dr Joe Kent is based at Seaton and Colyton Medical Practice and will put himself to the test in aid of Médecins San Frontières (Doctors Without Borders) and Eating With Dignity.

He left the country on October 1st and was set to start the climb on October 3rd.

He said: "MSF volunteers work in extreme conditions helping the most vulnerable people on earth.

"Their work is simply amazing and I would like to do anything I can to support it.

"I am very lucky to live and work in the UK as a doctor and I would love to volunteer directly with MSF.

"Until I am able to work directly with them, I would like to raise funds for the charity."

Dr Kent will climb in a group of three with family members Nick Seaver and David Kelly, and the plan is to be back for Abingdon Marathon on October 23rd.

Talking about his preparations, he said: "Combining a climb of Mount Kilimanjaro and a marathon within the same two weeks seemed like a sensible plan – since I would only need to train once, or so I thought.

"I was totally wrong – I quickly discovered that the type of training required for a marathon is completely different to the safe preparation required for high altitude mountain ascent.

"I've been up high in the Andes before, but Kilimanjaro peaks at 5,895m (19,341ft) and I've run The Grizzly before, but I've never run a marathon.

■ DETERMINED: Dr Kent

"It's OK though as all the pain will be in aid of MSF and local health charity Eating with Dignity.

"The trip is totally self-funded, which means donations all go directly to the charity concerned."

Donations can be made online at: <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/Joseph-Kent> (MSF) and <http://bit.ly/2dsD8JD> (Eating With Dignity).

Wetlands staff raise £180 for Hospiscare

STAFF and volunteers at Seaton Wetlands hosted a coffee morning in support of Hospiscare and raised more than £180.

The event was well attended and included former BBC TV and Radio presenter Judi Spiers, who has been attending as many coffee mornings as possible during September for the Hospiscare charity.

These support patients and the family and friends of those with a life-limiting illness.

Seaton Wetlands volunteers baked a range of delicious cakes for the event. From raspberry cream to chocolate torte, there was something for everyone, including gluten free options. The cakes were served with a hot drink for a donation of £3 per person.

The good weather meant visitors could choose whether to enjoy their refreshments with a view over the pond, in the picnic area or in the sheltered reed base.

Cllr Iain Chubb, East Devon District Council's portfolio holder for the Environment, said: "Seaton Wetlands is a beautiful wildlife site run by our Countryside team. The staff and volunteers wanted to support a local charity, and the coffee morning gave people the opportunity to socialise and relax in the natural environment, whilst supporting an important cause."

The East Devon District Council Countryside team manages sites across the district for the benefit of local people and wildlife.

Stroke group to hold fundraising coffee morning

THE next coffee morning for Seaton Stroke Group will be held on Monday, October 10th, between 10am and 12noon at No 1 Harepath Road, Seaton. The aim of the group is to provide peer support and relevant information to stroke survivors and their carers.

Green light for Seaton Quay development

APPROPOSAL to build 60 apartments and 30 town houses on the former Racal site in Seaton has been approved.

Applicant Axe Riverside Company says the design has been very well received locally, and the company would welcome interest from builders and developers to bring the scheme to fruition.

A spokesperson said: "We now have an excellent package, and the proposed buildings look extremely attractive in such a great setting.

"It has taken a lot of time and effort to reach this point in the process, and we are very happy with the permission.

"Our scheme complements the other improvements that we have recently seen at Seaton, which are transforming the town."

The project was 'declared dead' in 2012 when East Devon District Council refused to remove affordable housing conditions. But it was subsequently revived following a shift in Government policy.

The company spokesperson added: "The design, by Purl Associates, is a mix of town houses and apartments, and has been arranged flexibly to allow for phased development.

"The waterside site offers superb views across the Axe Estuary, over Axmouth Harbour to the south, and the new Wetlands project to the north.

"The level location offers easy access to the beach and town centre amenities."

Seaton Town Council recommended approval after a short presentation by Axe Riverside Company representative Edward Willis Fleming during a meeting earlier this year.

At the time, the company said the project was "probably a £20million investment", that work to raise the money and find partners "is not easy" and that the work is likely to be carried out in three phases.

Axminster hospital flooded

OUTPATIENT APPOINTMENTS CANCELLED FOR THE WEEK

AXMINSTER Community Hospital has been temporarily closed because of a burst water main pipe in the cellar.

The hospital closed in the morning of Monday, October 3rd, and is expected to stay closed for the rest of the week.

A spokesperson for Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust said: "The flooding has caused some infrastructure damage, which has affected the hospital's IT services and electricity supply.

"As a result, services at the hospital have been temporarily suspended.

"Staff have been working on site this morning [Monday] to resolve the situation as quickly as possible, with support from Northern Devon Healthcare Trust and other partner agencies."

Firefighters were in attendance to pump out the water.

The spokesperson added: "Many outpatients' clinics have already been rearranged at neighbouring community hospitals.

"However, some appointments have regrettably been cancelled this week.

"We would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused to patients during this time.

"If you have an appointment at Axminster Community Hospital this week, you will be contacted by a member of staff to rearrange your appointment as soon as possible."

Le Pisani

café • restaurant • bar
www.lepisani.com
01297 631697

RAY Pisani opened his stylish and contemporary restaurant, nestled just off the square in Axminster, almost three years ago. The business, which is named after the acclaimed chef and his business partner and long-time friend Franco Pisani, as they coincidentally share the same surname, has continued to gain a reputation for exquisite food served within the calm and comfortable town centre oasis.

Originally from Malta, Ray followed in his father's footsteps and started cooking at the tender age of six. The family owned a busy restaurant on the island and Ray began to learn his craft along with how to best manage a popular business.

"At that time a bread roll, a bottle of coke and a plate of chips worked out to about seven and half pence in today's money," Ray said.

A keen fisherman, the culinarian honed his skills as a teenager, cooking his catch and learning how to best use the traditional Maltese ingredients and methods.

Ray made the move to the UK in 1984 and started work as a sous chef in Cardiff. After very quickly working his way up to a head chef position, the friendly foodie soon decided it was time to strike out on his own and opened his first restaurant with just £25 to his name. With steely determination and an energy and enthusiasm for his cuisine, he quickly became a huge success, gaining numerous accolades and cooking for a whole host of celebrities, including Tiger Woods, Les Dawson and the cast of Are you being Served?.

After moving to the Devon town in 2013, Ray has fast become something of a local celebrity and loves being close to the sea and the countryside while immersing himself in all aspects of the local community.

The restaurant is open throughout the day and has many regular customers. It also opens at 5pm in the evening, so is an ideal pit stop for a pre-shows meal, with the Guildhall just a stones throw away.

The Mediterranean cuisine is prepared to order with locally sourced ingredients where possible and with a vast array of daily specials, offers something for everyone.

Ray said: "It's genuine food, real food and everything is fresh and cooked to order. Everything originates from the Mediterranean style of cuisine, with the seafood dishes perfected from years of catching fish and experimenting with fresh ingredients."

Be in with a chance of eating for free at Le Pisani!

Once a month on a day of Ray's choice, the entire restaurant will receive their meals FREE*. All you need to do is book a table by 5pm that evening.

'World's Biggest Coffee Morning' fundraises around Devon

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

■ THE coffee morning at Riverside Motors in Ottery St Mary enjoyed a steady stream of customers, some coming under their own volition while others were waiting for their cars to be fixed

THE World's Biggest Coffee Morning got the punters out in Devon.

Friday, September 30th was the main day, but some coffee morning hosts staged their events just before or after Friday.

The annual UK-wide event is Macmillan Cancer Support's biggest fundraiser, aiming to raise as much money as possible to help people affected by cancer.

A Macmillan spokesperson said prior to the day: "We ask people all over the UK to host their own coffee mornings, and donations on the day are made to Macmillan Cancer Care.

"Last year alone we raised £25 million and this year we are aiming to raise even more."

■ THE coffee morning at Marshlands in Seaton was organised by local resident Susan Pitt and her team

■ HAWKCHURCH village hall was packed to the rafters

■ SCOTT Rowe Solicitors in Axminster made the most of it by spreading their coffee morning over Thursday and Friday

Big turnout for Scamper

READY, STEADY, GO! Youngsters getting ready for the 3k challenge ■ STOCKLAND: The Stockland Scamper attracted close to 200 runners and raised £1,200 for the village primary school.

Organised by the school PTFA, the event took place on Sunday, September 25th and featured two races – a 10k and 3k run.

The rain held off right up until the last minute of the race, so runners enjoyed clear skies and glorious views.

The 10k race saw a good turnout of around 60 runners whilst the 3k race continues to go from strength to strength, with 125 runners (mostly children) on the starting line.

The School Cup was taken home by Uptottery Primary School.

A spokesperson for Stockland Primary Academy PTFA said: "The Scamper was a brilliant event again this year.

"In total, £1,200 was raised and will be put towards the library building project at the school.

"The Stockland Academy PTFA had a great team running the show, organising everything from catering to time keeping. Our thanks to them, and the Scamper will be back in 2017."

Farm shop release another music video

■ KILMINGTON: Kieran Marshall and his colleagues at Millers Farm Shop in Kilminster hope that their second parody music video will attract members of Take That.

Their first effort has generated about 4,000 views on YouTube, and it is hoped their second effort will enjoy similar success.

Mr Marshall said: "My boss Olivia Miller is a huge Take That fan, which gave me the idea for us to start making these videos in the hope that they may possibly visit the shop one day – Gary Barlow often stays in Lyme Regis and visits River Cottage.

"We have now released our second music video – Take That – 'These Days' (Remix Parody) – which features the Lyme Regis Majorettes.

"We have put so much time and love into creating these videos and we just love sharing them with as many people as we can.

"We are reaching out to a large number of local businesses, newspapers and TV shows to really help us spread the word and share our creations with a much larger audience.

"Gary Barlow and Mark Owen loved our first video, so we're hoping they get to see this one soon as well."

He also said that a Christmas video is on the cards. Mr Marshall explained: "We received so much positive feedback from people all over the world that we decided to make a second one."

The new video can be viewed at <https://youtu.be/nORig1tlqcl>

Silent auction at Musbury church

■ MUSBURY: St Michael's Church is hoping for a great turnout when holding a silent auction on Saturday, October 8th.

The auction will take place in Musbury Village Hall, starting at 7.30pm, and parochial church council secretary Kay Short said: "The church is very short of funds for the everyday upkeep of the building and expenses and we rely heavily on fundraising to keep us afloat.

"This is our latest effort and we are looking for lots of support from the community.

"There are some very exciting items and promises on offer already and they are still coming in.

"Companies from Axminster, Seaton and other local businesses have been really generous and offered a good variety of things, vouchers and promises.

"Musbury villagers have also been generous.

"We have a holiday, logs, Christmas cakes, gardening, wine, a visit behind the scenes at Pecorama, paintings and many other items.

"We would like to see as many people come on the night to bid for these lots."

Tickets, which include wine and nibbles, are £3 from Musbury Garage/Spar.

Kay added: "We really need your support."

Laser Therapy

Photobiomodulation is the application of red and near infra-red light over injuries to increase the speed, quality and tensile strength of tissue repair; resolve inflammation and relieve pain.

The effects are photochemical (like photosynthesis in plants). When the correct intensity and treatment times are applied, red and near infrared light reduces oxidative stress and increases ATP. This improves cell metabolism and reduces inflammation.

It is popularly used for acute and chronic pain on soft tissue injuries, joint conditions such as osteo and rheumatoid arthritis, neuropathic pain, post operation recovery and general body aches.

Anti-Gravity Treadmill

We are the only private clinic in the South West and one of only fifteen private clinics in the UK to offer this therapy to the public.

Engineered by NASA, the Anti-Gravity Treadmill 'unweights' the user by as much as 80% in precise 1% increments allowing them to move at a reduced bodyweight. This accurate, safe and comfortable partial weight-bearing therapy promotes normal gait patterns, unlike hydrotherapy, whilst significantly minimising the impact on joints and muscles to aid a smooth recovery. The system provides a safe and pain-free environment for use in physical therapy sessions at any stage of the rehabilitation process.

Gait Analysis

Our system offers analysis of walking and/or running over the RS footscan mat with over 4000 sensors embedded into it to gain in depth analysis of your foot positions, pressure and force distributed during the motion, in both 2D and 3D. The advanced software allows automatic division of the foot into specific regions. This allows force and pressure distribution within these areas to be analysed and associated with certain foot mechanics and functions which can affect the kinetic chain of your gait.

UK's First WalkerView

The WalkerView is the only treadmill with an embedded PC platform that monitors and records step length, speed, symmetry and the range of motion in hips, knees, ankles, shoulders and all other postural aspects of the gait pattern. All of these functions create a unique system for a complete and accurate gait analysis.

As well as embedded sensors beneath the treadmill belt, it is also equipped with an integrated 3D camera to give instant feedback for analysing movement and posture. A 46 inch monitor positioned at the front of the WalkerView system acts as a digital mirror that provides powerful feedback for controlling posture when in motion. Powerful mirrors that digitalise the users image allow it to rotate for a complete three-dimensional vision of the users gait cycle.

Custom 3D Printed Orthotics

Offering the world's first dynamic 3D printed orthotics as the UK's opening distributor. They are customised to support the every move of an individual from our pressure plate analysis.

It is this 3D print system that gave Paula Radcliffe a come back in 2015 "Without the support of these orthotics, I would have been incapable of recovering this quickly after my operations, this would have probably been the end of my career." "Paula Radcliffe 2015"

Unit 2A Corbin Way, Gore Cross Business Park, Bridport.

Janet shares the highs and lows of farming

MEMBERS and visitors to the September meeting of the Honiton U3A were highly entertained with the stories and anecdotes of their guest speaker – Janet East, farmer and landlady of Yellingham Farm.

Janet was born and grew up in a farming family in North Devon – a life she loved. However university took her away from East Devon to study in Guildford and it was in the south east that she met and married Edward, a Londoner and a chef who knew nothing about farming.

Their first house had half an acre of land and it took only three pints of beer for Janet to persuade Edward that two sheep would control the grass, and so began her return to farming.

Homesick for Devon, Janet and Edward began a two-year search for a farm, it was the sight of an AGA in the kitchen of Yellingham Farm that swayed their decision to buy, and whilst Edward continued as a chef, Janet built up her farm and began her B&B.

Life was never dull – stories included how her dog ate a guest's lemon cake, a visit by the local school children to learn about lambing, which turned into an impromptu sex education lesson, and guests who were dubious about having their breakfast served by someone who had just assisted in the birth of a lamb.

There were disasters too – including a savage dog attack on her flock and how she fought back from the infamous foot and mouth disease, which virtually ruined her farming business, to build a new enterprise producing and selling her own meat and Jacob wool products, first in farmers' markets, and then on the internet. She even took along many of the items made from the wool of her own sheep and gave an invitation to everyone to go and visit Yellingham Farm.

Janet was thanked by the chairman for captivating the audience with her extremely amusing and entertaining stories and anecdotes.

Garden club's new season

THE first meeting of Musbury Garden Club's new season will be held on Monday, October 10th at Musbury Village Hall.

Hot refreshments will be served from 7pm onwards.

A talk on a tale of "Two Freds" will be given at 7.30pm by Mrs

Carolyn Keep, an author and conservationist.

FW Meyer was a landscape gardener working in East Devon and Fred Viggers discovered and researched Mr Meyer's work.

All are welcome. Non-members £2.50.

Students thank Rotary club

TWO youngsters visited Axminster to share their experiences from the Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) course this summer.

Victoria Synek-Herd and Rory Dyer both attended Colyton Grammar School when selected by The Rotary Club of Axminster (Rory has since left to study engineering at Cambridge).

The week-long course was held in Okehampton in July.

Rory and Victoria were invited to lunch by the Axminster Club on Friday, September 23rd.

They thanked the club for the sponsorship and both agreed that attending the course had been "a real benefit".

Winter talks announced for historical society

AN interesting programme of winter talks has been announced by Axminster Historical Society.

Their informal and friendly evenings run from October 5th right through until May.

Held on the first Wednesday of each month guest speakers cover a wide range of subjects and everyone is welcome.

Some subjects are of local interest such as the 1786 story of the Halsewell, wrecked in ferocious seas drowning its captain Richard Pierce, many crew, his teenage daughters, his nieces and several other young ladies bound for India in search of rich husbands.

Other talks cover more general historical entertainment like the history of the Magic Lantern, which includes a show from one of these fabulous machines.

The first talk on Wednesday, October 5th is Billy Down's World War II Secret Radio Station hidden away at Bewley Down.

The underground transmission room is cleverly concealed under an outside privy, the access shaft beneath the seat.

It was built as part of a secret coastal resistance organisation that was training local civilians as spies and saboteurs in case of Nazi occupation.

Captain Hugh May RN will tell the full story and reveal the intrigue behind these WWII intelligence units at 7.30pm in The Bradshaw Room at Axminster Heritage, Thomas Whitty House.

Let's celebrate our Silver Citizens

THE United Nations has named October 1st as 'Older People's Day' and it is well worth celebrating. In East Devon the majority of residents are over 50. Government often defines "older" as 50 and over. This is on the basis that in some people in their 50s may have the same needs as people in their 70s. The average working person's income begins to decline after 50 rather than increase.

Most people between 50 and 75 are as healthy, and often stronger, than people between 16 and 35. The huge majority of over 50s are strong contributors to the local economy and social scene. In my street there are many people in their 80s who make the place a pleasure. They care for others as well as caring for their own sick relatives.

Add to this the full and part-time work which those over retirement age still do. The skills they developed over decades remain valued by their organisations. They are invaluable in the voluntary work they do. We have a lot to celebrate.

The first reason we should celebrate these people is their rugged courage as they refuse to let older age affect them. By exercise, diet and sheer will-power they fight the effects of deterioration in physique and memory. It is a battle which they cannot win. Only in the last few years when they become frail is there any drain on Health or Care resources. Then much of the cost of these services is due to older people.

Having said that each successive government study finds that their contribution of taxes and spending is far more than the costs they later incur. So the second reason we should celebrate older people is that without them, our local economy would collapse. They spend on themselves. They are a rich source of funds for their children and grandchildren. They attract many visitors for day and week-long visits to swell the income of tourism and retail businesses.

Local businesses could note that marketing magazines show businesses miss the potential of the "silver spenders" who may need different products and services to the younger population.

That brings me to the third reason. Older people make the most contributions to the clubs, societies and volunteers in the area. Without them most would collapse. They run errands, take people to hospital, babysit and manage most of the clubs too. They are indispensable to our society and culture.

In East Devon we aim to get the open green spaces we need for walkers and picnickers. We fund playgrounds for young people and help with sports facilities. We have set policies to ensure that new houses must have 20 per cent at least built to 'Lifetime' standards. This is so that disabled and elderly people have suitable accommodation. But much of the time we simply appreciate and applaud all the good things this age group does to help our welfare budgets stretch.

I could go on, but it might be good if the towns of East Devon could have one 'Silver Citizens' day as well as that in Exeter to celebrate this large valuable group of people.

Cost of road work

FIRSTLY, the Honiton A30 road improvements are part of a national scheme. The most significant part of this is for traffic bound for Cornwall and west Devon to leave the A303 at the Ilminster roundabout onto a new dual carriageway A358. This then leads to J25 of the M5 and a blast down to Exeter and the west.

Secondly, the intended result is a large reduction in traffic keeping to the A303 through the Blackdown Hills, as the new scheme via the M5 will offer a smoother run and shorter journey time. But for those opting for the scenic route and keeping on the A303/30, the Honiton improvements will offer a reduction of about three minutes on the fifty-minute journey time to Exeter. Hardly a cost-effective use of near £100,000,000.

Thirdly, if the government has a spare £100Mn to spend on Honiton and district, a more effective use would be for the provision of, say, one thousand affordable homes. This would be of real benefit to the community.

R NIX,
Honiton

Brexit cash for NHS

WITHOUT appearing flippant (of which no doubt I will be accused), why are the current draconian measures being applied to the NHS?

In the not-too-distant future we will have billions of extra pounds available for the service. Remember the battle cry on the Brexit bus? "Why send Europe £350 million a week, let's fund our NHS instead."

Well we've got Brexit and with it the equity of our future savings. Surely the extra money needed now should be forthcoming without making our communities and people suffer.

DEREK STURCH,
Honiton

Lost purse returned

MAY I express my gratitude to all persons involved in the return of my purse which I inadvertently left on a bench between Branscombe beach and The Masons Arms. I would particularly like to thank the gentleman who found it, staff at The Masons Arms and the police officer/s who had the forethought to leave details for me at The Mason Arms, without which I have no doubt I would not have been reunited with my purse as quickly as happened. It is people such as these that put the Great in Great Britain – thank you all very, very much.

I WOULD like to say a big, big "thank you" to the people of Colyton and the following for their major contributions to fund a new defibrillator for the town.

Contributions came from Spar customs, Seaton Lions, Colyton Carnival Club, Colyton Town Council, The Chamber of Feoffees, Colcombe Castle, Colyton Takeaway.

Many, many thanks to all involved.

Operation Christmas Child

NOW is the time to start sharing your 'Happy Christmas' with the children of icy Eastern Europe by filling brightly-covered shoe boxes with useful things like paper and pencils for school, toiletries and bags, as well as toys.

Most of all they need a warm hat, gloves and a scarf in each box.

The first things they look for are sweets (wrapped) and knick-knacks – colourful, joyful.

My porch is always open with leaflets and to receive fillers if you cannot manage a box.

Between us last year we sent off 248 boxes from: 55 Scalwell Lane, Seaton EX12 2DA, tel 01297 22310.

We are forming a team to cover and fill boxes at the Methodist Church during October – November 6th. More helpers are very welcome.

Enjoy and be blessed as you send your love-gifts to the poorest of the poor, via Samaritan's Purse who request we add £3 to each box to cover their many costs.

WEAR IT PINK is back, and it's bigger, brighter and bolder than ever.

Wear it pink ambassador revealed

WE are excited to reveal Actress and TV presenter Lisa Riley as our wear it pink ambassador for 2016!

Now in its 15th year, wear it pink 2016 is set to be the UK's biggest and pinkest fundraising event during Breast Cancer Awareness Month. On 21 October, thousands of people across the country will be joining Lisa by adding a splash of pink to their outfit to raise money for life-saving breast cancer research.

Lisa said: "I am so proud to be part of wear it pink 2016. It's such a fantastic, fun-filled event, which gets friends, family and colleagues together in support of Breast Cancer Now.

I lost my beautiful mum to breast cancer in 2012, and so I know the devastating effect this awful disease can have.

Breast cancer is still the most common cancer in the UK. Every year, wear it pink raises money to fund Breast Cancer Now's world-class breast cancer researchers in the UK and Ireland.

Together, they are working to discover how to prevent breast cancer, how to detect it earlier and how to treat it effectively at every stage to help stop the disease taking lives.

There are so many ways to get involved in wear it pink on 21 October – be it a pink fancy dress day in the office, a pink themed sweepstake, a pink dinner party at home or a pink cake sale at school. So what are you waiting for? Join me and sign up today!"

Rose Petal Heart Cake by Fiona Cairns

AN exquisite combination of white chocolate, cardamom, rosewater and raspberries. This cake is temptingly strewn with crystallised petals and white chocolate curls; both can be made a few days ahead, then stored in dry conditions in a cardboard box at room temperature.

What you'll need

For the crystallised rose petals:

- 1 egg white, lightly whisked
- White caster sugar
- Small paint brush
- Rose petals

For the cake:

- 130g unsalted butter, softened
- 20 green cardamom pods
- 170g self-raising flour
- 100g white chocolate, chopped
- 130g white caster sugar
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 tsp vanilla extract

For the ganache:

- 100g white chocolate, finely chopped
- 100ml double cream
- 2 tsp rosewater

For decoration:

- 250g fresh raspberries
- 200g icing sugar, sifted
- 2-2.5 tbsp rosewater
- 100g white chocolate, broken into pieces

Method:

1. The crystallised rose petals require a day or so to dry out so are best made in advance. Firstly line a baking sheet with baking parchment. Place the egg white in a bowl and the sugar in another. Hold the petals at the base and paint with egg, ensuring you cover every fold.
2. Gently sprinkle on the sugar, again making sure every surface is covered, then shake off the excess.

3. Lay petals on the line sheet and leave overnight in a dry warm place (an airing cupboard is ideal). They will harden in a few hours and become brittle. Store in an airtight container, lined and interleaved with baking parchment until ready to use on the cake.

4. For the cake, preheat the oven to 180°C/fan 170°C/350°F/gas mark 4. I make this cake in a heart-shaped tin measuring 23cm at its widest point and 6.5cm deep, but otherwise use a 20cm diameter, 7.5cm deep, round tin. Butter the tin very well, then line with baking parchment.

5. Deseed the cardamom pods: split them with the point of a knife, empty out the little seeds and grind them to a powder in a pestle and mortar. There may be a few pieces of husk mixed in, so sift the cardamom powder together with the flour to remove them.

6. Place the chocolate in a food processor with half the sugar. Process until as fine as possible.

7. Take 2 tbsp hot water – not boiling water or the chocolate will seize – and leave it until you can just dip in your finger. Dribble it into the chocolate, processing until most has melted.

8. Add the remaining sugar and the butter, cut into knobs, and process well. Add the eggs, flour and vanilla and mix again. Don't worry if there are tiny pieces of chocolate left in the batter.

9. Pour into the tin and bake for 25–30 minutes or until a skewer comes out clean. Rest in the tin for a few minutes, then turn out on to a wire rack, removing the papers. Leave until absolutely cold.

10. Meanwhile, make the ganache. Place the chocolate in a bowl and, in a pan, bring the cream and rosewater to the boil. Pour the cream over the chocolate, leave it for a few seconds, then gently stir until smooth. Leave until cold, chill slightly, then whisk until it thickens.

11. Split the cake, spoon in the ganache filling and the fresh raspberries, then turn it upside down on to a cake stand. Place the icing sugar into a bowl and gradually add the rosewater, mixing all the time until the icing is thick enough to coat the back of a spoon. Pour over the cake and let it drizzle down the sides. Allow to set for an hour or so.

12. To make the chocolate curls, place a small heatproof bowl over a saucepan of gently simmering water, making sure the base of the bowl does not touch the water. Add the white chocolate to the bowl and heat until it melts, stirring only very occasionally. Pour it on to a plastic board, or a piece of marble, and spread out with a palette knife. Allow to set; a short spell in the refrigerator will help.

13. Run a sharp fine knife at a 45-degree angle across the chocolate (or use a vegetable peeler) and it will curl. Too cold and it won't work; too soft and it will need 15 minutes or so back in the refrigerator. You'll have to experiment.

14. Scatter the cake with the chocolate curls, then with the rose petals.

This October, it's time to get your pink on!

WEAR IT PINK is back, and it's bigger, brighter and bolder than ever.

Bronwen & Rachael share their story

BRONWEN and Rachael are best friends who were both diagnosed with breast cancer within the same year. They are passionate about fundraising for Breast Cancer Now along-side their friends Sophie and Angie-May, now they would like to tell you why.

Rachael was diagnosed at 41 with grade 2 multi focal invasive lobular cancer in August 2012 and underwent a mastectomy, chemotherapy and radiotherapy. In September 2014 Rachael had a prophylactic mastectomy with double reconstructive surgery.

Bronwen was diagnosed at 40 with grade 2 invasive ductal cancer and extensive high grade DCSIS in July 2013. She had a mastectomy with immediate reconstructive surgery, chemotherapy and Herceptin.

Both are now on a 10 year course of hormone therapy.

Bronwen: 'When Rachael was diagnosed with breast cancer I was devastated. I remember thinking that it couldn't be possible as people our age just didn't get breast cancer. I know now I was wrong. Rachael was such an inspiration to me throughout her treatment. She bore every indignity and side effect with such grace and stoicism that even though I went with her to treatment I had no idea how tough it really is, until I went through it myself. Rachael kept life as normal as possible for her kids and her family and has come out the other side braver and stronger than before.'

Rachael: 'I initially felt very angry about my breast cancer diagnosis as I had been checking myself regularly as my mum already had two separate breast cancer diagnoses. There are not usually any easily detectible lumps with lobular breast cancer and because of my age the doctors were reluctant to send me for a mammogram. When I found out I had breast cancer I was floored. Bronwen was such a wonderful friend throughout my treatment and provided me with valuable support and help.

Having just about breathed a huge sigh of relief that my ordeal was over, it was so distressing to hear that Bronwen had found a lump. Once you have had breast cancer, you always encourage your friends to continually check themselves, but your greatest fear is that they will actually get it!

Bronwen coped amazingly well with her chemotherapy. Despite having come with me for my treatments and having an inclination about what her treatment would be like, I knew that sometimes when you say "I'm fine" it often means "I'm not fine at all".

Having HER2 meant that she had to have a further year of treatment with Herceptin, which she was unusually highly allergic to. Although given the option to stop, Bronwen chose to complete all 18 treatments, which was incredible. She even managed to carry on with the work she was doing and had to be told to stop committing herself to more.

Good friends share many things and whilst I really wish Bronwen hadn't shared having breast cancer with me, it has been a great help to be able to share how the experience really is. We can even laugh about the silly things – our cold cap and bizarre wig shop experiences.'

Their message to you

CANCER changes you physically (weight gain; bloating; hair loss; mastectomies) but also mentally and the worry about it coming back. Although as time goes by these worries lessen, which is why we found it immensely re-assuring to visit the Breast Cancer Now Research Centre and talk to scientists who spend their working lives trying to eradicate the disease.

We became involved with the charity during our treatment as we really wanted to do something positive. We started our annual bake off and we hope to raise even more money this year for wear it pink.

We hope that we have beaten breast cancer and seen the back of it but until Breast Cancer Now achieve their goal of ensuring that no more women die of breast cancer we will continue to campaign to raise awareness and raise money to fund their much needed research.

We urge you to do the same - Bronwen and Rachael Xx

Whether you're a first timer or a seasoned wear it pinker, get involved with wear it pink on Friday 21 October and sign up now for your free fundraising pack.

Fountain of Gold

FOUR-PIECE band The Fountaineers will bring their brand of traditional Irish-style music to The Golden Hind, Musbury, on Friday, October 14th.

The group, formed at Branscombe's The Fountainhead - hence the name The Fountaineers - aim to re-create the feeling of a quality, genuine Irish session, playing a mixture of jigs, reels and songs, and looking for a bit of audience participation when the beer's been flowing!

The Fountaineers recently played at River Cottage Music Festival to a terrific response (see uncut footage at facebook.com/RakishUK).

The gig at The Golden Hind, starting at 8.30pm, is especially important as it will act as a celebration for the recent change in ownership for new owners Emma and Adrian Shrubb.

One night with Rev Elvis!

'ELVIS Presley' is going to be in the house at The Beacon, Kimington on October 15th from 7pm. Andy Kelso is an Anglican vicar but comes to the audience as "Rev Elvis", with coverage on TV and Radio and in the National Press, and it's a real coup to have him come to perform locally.

The show comprises the very best of Elvis with rock, ballad and gospel songs, complete with a Fish and Chip supper. It's a unique evening which when the audience will get 'all shook up' as they hear about 'The King'.

Tickets cost just £7, including the meal, and can be booked on 01297-631638 or online at events@beaconbaptist.co.uk

KENNETH Branagh stars in John Osborne's modern classic The Entertainer, set against the dying days of the music hall. Kenneth Branagh's ambitious year-long residence at the Garrick Theatre got off to a flying start with the artistic and commercial triumph of The Winter's Tale with Judi Dench. The first of three plays to be broadcast live to cinemas, it took £1.6 million at the UK box office.

Now Branagh's first season concludes with John

Osborne's follow-up to his groundbreaking Look Back in Anger. This has at its centre the memorably sad, middle-aged figure of fading music-hall star Archie Rice, whose failing career is set against the backdrop of post-Colonial decline and personal tragedy. Archie was famously played by Laurence Olivier in the original production at the Royal Court Theatre in 1957. Branagh himself has frequently been compared to Olivier, so anticipation will be at fever pitch when he takes on this iconic role in his artistic associate Rob Ashford's production.

Tickets £12.50 advance, £15 on the door. Box Office 01297 625699 & website ticketshop. The performance will be shown on Thursday, October 27th. Doors open 6.30pm Performance starts 7.00pm. Licensed bar & refreshments.

IN A seaside town where business and mafia are flourishing, The Golden Age cabaret is the favorite nightly haunt of dancers, bandits and young revellers, where the young fisherman Boris falls in love with Rita, a beautiful dancer, but also the friend of a local gangster. A satire of Europe during the Roaring 20s, The Golden Age makes for an original, colorful, and dazzling show with its jazzy score and music-hall atmosphere. This ballet that can only be seen at the Bolshoi has everything to it: mad rhythms, vigorous chase scenes, and decadent cabaret numbers. With its passionate love story featuring beautiful duets between Boris and Rita, the Bolshoi dancers plunge into every stylized step and gesture magnificently.

Music Dmitri Shostakovich. Choreography Yuri Grigorovich. Libretto Yuri Grigorovich and Isaak Glikman. Cast The Bolshoi Principals, Soloists and Corps de Ballet.

The performance will be shown on Thursday, October 18th. Doors open 6.30pm performance 7.00pm. Running time 2hrs 20min approx. Licensed bar & refreshments.

FRIDAY OCTOBER 14TH

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE THIS OCTOBER

AT THIS time of year trees provide one of nature's most colourful spectacles, so it's appropriate that this month's exhibition is 'Find a Tree', curated by artist and tree dower Gordon Field. The exhibition runs from October 3rd-29th, and features 10 local artists, who were each instructed by Gordon to 'find a tree', spend some time with it and create art works inspired by it. The participating artists work across a range of media from textiles and sculpture to photography, painting and multi-media installations and include Gwyn Ardyth, Louise Baker, Louise Cottee, Jon England, Gordon Field, Frances Harrison, Fiona Hingston, Stefan Jennings, Lucy Lean and Jo Minoprio.

Gordon will give a talk about his relationship with trees at a Meet the Artist event on Sunday 9th. Drop in 3pm-5pm to hear Gordon's fascinating 'take' on trees, and how it influences his art.

On Friday 21st Dave Martin's Jabbo Five will play the music of 1920s jazz star Jabbo Smith and his Rhythm Aces. Dave and his fellow band members have played in many of the best-known groups of the 'Trad' era so they know what they're doing when it comes to interpreting vintage jazz in authentic style. Advance booking recommended.

with Abigail Willis

Award-winning jazz pianist Dave Newton returns to the Arts Centre on Friday 28th, bringing with him two guest players of outstanding quality: tenor saxist Alex Garnett and guitarist Nigel Price. Individually they are all leading exponents of their respective instruments; together they present an evening of magnificent modern jazz.

If you play an instrument and would like to try improvising around jazz standards, why not come to our jazz jam sessions? These take place on the first and third Monday of the month at 8pm, and cost only £2 to take part.

One of our most popular bi-annual events returns on Wednesday 26th - the Antique and Vintage Textiles Fair, curated by A Talent for Textiles, a collective of local specialist textile dealers. Feast your eyes, and fill your shopping basket with gorgeous linens, haberdashery, frills and furbelows from days gone by.

Don't forget our brilliant children's Saturday morning art class with Margaret Micklewright returns on October 15th, and our other regular workshops continue throughout the month: Clay Sculpture on Mondays, Rag Rugs and Readers Group on October 14th, Stitch, Knit & Crochet on the 20th, Felting on the 21st and Crazy Patchwork on the 25th. www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Gilbert and Sullivan's 'Patience' at Barnfield Theatre

ST DAVID'S PLAYERS production of 'Patience' will be a treat for all lovers of musical theatre and a chance to see Gilbert's razor sharp wit combined with Sullivan's beautiful music bringing together romance, rural simplicity and military discipline. This production will appeal to all ages, to G&S aficionados and to newcomers alike.

Will Patience ever fall in love? Who will win Mr Bunthorne in the raffle? Will the ladies remain in aesthetic rapture and will the Dragoon Guards redesign their time honoured uniforms to win them back? Will Mr Grosvenor's claim that it is his "hideous destiny to be madly loved" by all women include members of the audience?

There are soldiers – who do not always get things right; ladies – who keep falling in love; poets – who are not necessarily what they seem and antics on stage with a "cello" and some cymbals.

'Patience' will be performed at Exeter's Barnfield Theatre from Tuesday, October 11th to Saturday, October 15th at 7.30pm nightly (plus Saturday matinee at 2.30pm). Tickets are £14 for Tuesday and Saturday matinee, and £16 Wednesday to Saturday evenings. £60+ £15 Wednesday to Saturday evenings, and Family (2+2) £45 for Saturday matinee. A group offer of buy 10, get the 11th free is also available. For more details visit www.barnfieldtheatre.org.uk

Mercury nominee Kano to play Exeter

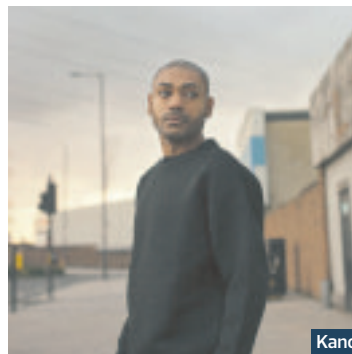

WITH a Mercury Music Prize nomination for his most important and successful album to date - the critically acclaimed 'Made In The Manor' - Kano's new video for 'T-Shirt Weather in the Manor' is a snapshot of a London community, filmed last weekend on the playing fields of the school he once attended and spat his first ever lyrics.

Set to a plaintive piano refrain and backed by insistent live drums, 'T-Shirt Weather in the Manor' sees him reflecting on the memories and characters from the long summers of his youth.

This summer Kano has headlined a road-blocked Fabric Live Stage at Lovebox and will be hitting further summer festivals including headlining Boardmasters, Sundown and Bestival.

An autumn tour includes Kano's biggest London headline show to date at the O2 Academy Brixton. This time around he'll be joined by a full live band to help bring the big 'Made in the Manor' experience to life. Little Simz is support for the show.

Kano plays at the Lemon Grove, Exeter (not the Exeter Phoenix as previously advertised - tickets still valid) this Wednesday, October 5th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £16, available online at www.eventbrite.co.uk.

this October

WE HAVE some whoppers coming up for everyone this autumn!

Our fantastically, exciting news is that we will now be live streaming a selection of ballets and operas from the Royal Opera House with More2screen. We begin the season with two Royal Ballet productions: 'Anastasia' on Wednesday, November 2nd, and 'The Nutcracker' on Thursday, December 8th.

Natalia Osipova dances the lead role of Anastasia in Kenneth Macmillan's exploration of identity in the turbulent wake of the Russian revolution.

The Royal Ballet celebrates Peter Wright's 90th Birthday with his much loved production of The Nutcracker, a real Christmas treat!

We also have Branagh Live Theatre streaming of "The Entertainer" starring Kenneth Branagh from the Garrick theatre at 7pm on Thursday, October 27th.

There are some great films to look forward to with 'Swallows and Amazons' (PG) on Friday, October 7th and the wonderfully weird 'Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children' (12A) on Saturday 29th. Tickets are also selling fast for 'Bridget Jones's Baby' on Friday, November 4th. For those who like fast paced, action thrillers we have Jason Statham in 'Mechanic: Resurrection' (15) on Friday, October 14th. Our classic movie this month is "From Here to Eternity" (PG) on Monday, October 24th at 2pm, this is a dementia friendly screening and everyone is very welcome, for only £3.50, a cup of tea, biscuits and a chat in the café bar are included!

Some excellent live music comes to The Beehive this month and throughout the Autumn, Flats & Sharps, the golden boys of the Bluegrass, Country/Folk scene are in great demand; they were so fabulous when they came in 2014 we just had to get them back, precision plucking and beautiful harmonies with great banter in between, book now! Saturday, October 8th 8pm with support from Owen & Friends.

Sweet Black Angels also return in their hotly anticipated home town gig. Firm favourites locally, this 5 piece indie folk, rock band is guaranteed to get the crowd going with a stonkingly good night out! Saturday, October 15th doors 7pm, 8pm support from Brent Nelson.

On Wednesday, October 12th Terry Stacey will be hosting our free Acoustic café in the bar, do come along either to listen to our local talent play and perform or have a go yourself!

On Sunday, October 30th at 7.30pm we have Mawkin. This immensely talented group are Brit Folk's brightest new five-piece, they fuse folk, blues & rock. Unapologetically energetic they play a wholly edgier version of folk. Recently toured supporting Bellowhead and are definitely a band well worth following, they're going places!

Finally this month we have an extra special treat, our first live Opera on Friday, October 28th at 7.30pm we have the Pop Up Opera performing Rossini's comic masterpiece, 'The Barber Of Seville' - "A 2hr explosion of beautiful music, top class singing & exceptional acting" - The Times.

Please take some time to look at our new flyer, pop in and see us or check out the website www.beehivehoniton.co.uk. See you soon!

Spoken word master Murray at Bridport Arts Centre

PREPARE for an evening of satirical soliloquy, rock-n-roll reverie and ditty as BBC6 music resident poet Murray Lachlan Young presents his stunning new live up-close and personal show.

Murray's shows are a delightful and satirical romp into the bizarre facets of fame, fashion, people, politics, a mild erotic folk ballad and the space-time continuum. This is unique stand up poetry/spoken word performance, from one of the very best in the business.

Murray heads out on tour drawing and performing material from his new hard-back collection: How Freakin' Zeitgeist Are You? along with much loved live favourites from BBC Radio.

Fresh from summer festival appearances at Glastonbury, WOMAD, Cornbury, and Port Eliot and Festival No 6, Murray kicks off October with a show at the Bridport Arts Centre.

Murray said: "In peoples minds Bridport fits neatly into that group of towns known as the muesli underground. Places of liberal thought where the occasional chillum appears from a sarong. If you go to Womad Festival you can see them all in one field."

"I like Womad and I like Bridport. Occasionally, when visiting, I have to listen to AC/DC quite loud as an antidote but I'm OK with that and I know Bridport is too."

Murray Lachlan Young is an acclaimed playwright, actor, screen-writer and poet -extraordinaire. Celebrated for his hybrid mix of stand-up comedy with delightful commentaries on the bizarreness of contemporary life, so expect flamboyant, punchy wit, brooding subtext and empathetic humour. Mick Jagger recently presented Keith Richards with a CD of Murray's poem, marking the anniversary of Keith falling out of a coconut tree.

Murray Lachlan Young performs at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, October 21st at 8pm.

Tickets cost £12 (£10 concessions) and are available from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

Hard Times and Hard Travelin'

WILL KAUFMAN BRINGS HIS 'LIVE DOCUMENTARY' ON WOODY GUTHRIE TO BRIDPORT

WILL KAUFMAN will be bringing his captivating show Woody Guthrie: Hard Times & Hard Travelin' to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, October 8th. Kaufman describes the show as a "live documentary" performing and elaborating on the songs of Woody Guthrie and their context of the American 1930s and the state of popular music itself.

Woody Guthrie - the American folk singer and champion of the working class who famously inspired Bob Dylan - is a fascinating subject for a show. The songs are great, "This Land Is Your Land" is even considered the US' second national anthem, but the stories behind them and his life are equally captivating. Kaufman performs the songs with great panache, playing the guitar, banjo and violin with enviable skill. Such hard-hitting Guthrie songs as "Vigilante Man", "Pretty Boy Floyd" and "I Ain't Got No Home" are brought into conversation with other relevant songs - from Joe Hill's "The Preacher and the Slave" to "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime?". Altogether the show highlights the blending of music and radical politics that marks Guthrie's most powerful work.

Will Kaufman, as well as being a singer and multi-instrumentalist is a Professor of American Literature and Culture at the University of Central Lancashire in Preston, England. He has given his Woody Guthrie presentations at such major events as the Glastonbury Festival, the Bath International Music Festival, the Whitby Folk Festival, the Big Session, and the Piacenza Literature and Blues Festival in Italy. He has also performed at countless European and American universities, folk clubs and union halls. Will has written a number of books on American culture and in 2008 Will was awarded his first Woody Guthrie Research Fellowship from the Broadcast Music Industry Foundation, which enabled him to write the first political biography of Guthrie, Woody Guthrie, American Radical (Illinois, 2011). He won his second BMI-Woody Guthrie Fellowship in 2014 and he is currently at work on a second book, Woody Guthrie's Modern World Blues. He was consultant to Johnny Depp and Douglas Brinkley for the publication of their co-edited edition of Guthrie's recently discovered novel, House of Earth (2013).

Will Kaufman's Woody Guthrie: Hard Times & Hard Travelin' comes to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, October 8th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 and £10, available online at www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204

Symonds & Sampson
ESTABLISHED 1858

SYMONDS & SAMPSON'S - LOCAL AND NATIONAL PRESS WITH REGARD TO HIS FISHING EXPLOITS!

JEREMY SMITH, who is a Partner at Symonds & Sampson's award winning Beaminstster office, is well known for selling lots of property, but has equally featured in local and national press with regard to his fishing exploits!

This year has been something of a golden year for Jeremy as not only has he caught his first double figure brown trout but also caught personal best Carp, Tarpon, Permit and Amberjack! However, recently Jeremy's year got even better as he explained. 'Whilst I have caught lots of big trout over the years, my personal best rainbow trout was set way back in 1995 at Tolpuddle lakes where I believe it is still the fishery record. Having caught a huge 17lb 1oz brown trout early this year, my goal was very much to break my current rainbow trout record of 15lb 10oz. I had heard through the fishing grape vine that Blakewell fishery in Barnstaple was producing some large trout, so decided to pop down there for a morning session recently. There were quite a few anglers on the lake, however, they were what we call 'casting blind' where I prefer to stalk individual fish. I spent the first hour looking around the lake, then I finally spotted a large rainbow trout sitting close to the bank. After a few casts I was able to tempt it ending in a new personal best of 16lb 7oz!

Having had photographs taken I still had a few fish to catch on my limit, so I went back to have another look around and after a further forty-five minutes I spotted a very good size fish hiding under a tree. This fish proved very difficult to tempt, but after an hour of patience I was able to persuade the fish to take my goldhead damselfly. Following a further 10 - 12 minute fight another very large rainbow trout was on the bank, and I wondered if it would beat the previous best, set earlier that day. To my amazement the scales went down to 18lb 2oz, so having waited twenty years to beat my personal best trout I had beaten it twice in the same day!

It was a wonderful day for me and I trust your readers will be interested in these two catches.

SPOTLIGHT

Spotlight
On My Service

TIP TOP TREES
Professional Tree Care

Tip Top Trees has been established for 16 years, based in Honiton we cover all areas of East Devon and Exeter.

Our services include all aspects of tree work including, crown reduction, pruning and felling, TPO Application and Conservation Orders.

All other aspects of garden care, fencing and landscaping undertaken.

We are fully insured and qualified and we pride ourselves on our quality of service and providing a Tip Top job every time.

Was started by Sean Kelly in May 1998, after several years of working with other tree companies, Sean decided that his future prospects in the industry that he loved would be better served by going it alone.

He spent several months gaining the extra qualifications needed to work by himself and carrying out market research to put together his business plan.

During this time he went to the Princes Youth Business Trust with his ideas and with their help was successfully granted a loan to start up Tip Top Trees.

After working by himself for 6 months Sean realised the best way forward was to employ someone else. He did this and since then the business has gone from strength to strength.

Sean has always taken great pride in his work and all jobs are completed to his own high standards.

As you will see from the online Portfolio.

"Thanks for visiting our site" Sean Kelly.

Nissan Micra Gen5: The revolution has begun

NISSAN'S Micra Gen5, unveiled at the 2016 Paris Motor Show, is a complete redefinition of what Micra means... and is as audacious as it is revolutionary.

Targeted for Europe, the world's largest hatchback market, the Micra Gen5 is styled to turn heads, with a dramatic body length-defining character line. It is lower, wider and longer than its predecessors and has more interior space. It also has advanced new downsized turbo drivetrains, an agile chassis and a full complement of innovative safety features.

"When the first Micra appeared more than 30 years ago, it marked a revolution in the small hatchback segment and opened a new chapter for Nissan. The fifth generation Micra is just as revolutionary, and will raise expectations for what a hatchback can, and should, deliver to its customers," said Carlos Ghosn, CEO, Nissan Motor Company. "Following in the wheel tracks of distinctive cars like Qashqai and Juke, the latest Micra reinforces Nissan's position as a leader in automotive design. It also shows our intent to compete right at the top of Europe's B-segment market – the largest and most competitive B-segment market in the world."

Styling

Remaining faithful to the Sway Concept unveiled at the 2015 Geneva Motor Show, the Micra Gen5 fully embodies Nissan's latest design language with signature design cues and emotional body sculpting. Design cues include the distinctive V-motion grille, from where the sharp-edged character line runs through to the rear end, boomerang-shaped lights, and the floating roof – another Nissan design signature – that creates an airy feeling. Other features include rear door handles hidden in the C-pillars and an extended roofline that incorporates a spoiler, benefiting the car's aerodynamic performance and aesthetics.

The dramatic looks are matched by a selection of 10 sophisticated and vivid exterior colours, including Energy Orange. Additional exterior and interior personalisation options allow for the creation of 125 different variations, enabling owners to stamp their own style on their new Micra.

Much attention has been paid to driver comfort, with a lower driving position for a more secure driving feel. It's easy for all drivers to achieve the perfect driving position thanks to greater seat adjustment, the fully adjustable steering wheel and the optimal positioning of the pedals and shift lever. The car's extended width and wheelbase means cabin space is among the best in class. The gliding-wing shaped dashboard gives the cabin a light, sleek and spacious impression.

Technology on board

This Micra Gen5 is the first in Nissan's B-segment line-up to offer such an extensive set of advanced safety features, available across all grades, bringing Nissan Intelligent Driving to life. Usually found in larger cars, available technologies include Lane Departure Prevention, a segment first. Intelligent Emergency Braking with pedestrian recognition, a first for Nissan vehicles in Europe, as well as Intelligent Around View Monitor, Traffic Sign Recognition, High Beam Assist and Blind Spot Warning. Together, these advanced safety features are the building blocks for Autonomous Driving and are an integral part of Nissan Intelligent Mobility.

An exclusive feature of Micra Gen5 is the all-new six-speaker Bose® Personal® sound system, developed through close collaboration with Nissan. This first-of-its-kind sound system is optimised for the driver, with two Bose Ultraearfield™ speakers, combined with Bose PersonalSpace™ Virtual Audio Technology, built into the driver seat headrest for a remarkably immersive listening experience. Additional passengers benefit from new Bose Super65 speakers in each of the front doors, producing powerful low-note performance, and tweeters in each A-pillar for sonic clarity.

Micra Gen5 comes with a 7-inch full colour central display, providing access to the audio system, satellite navigation, mobile phone, downloadable apps and Siri voice control via Apple CarPlay.

Chassis and drivetrain

Micra Gen5 features include Active Ride Control for enhanced ride comfort, and Active Trace Control for reduced understeer and sharper handling – combining driver enjoyment and reassurance – innovations only available on Nissan's Qashqai and X-Trail until now. A new brushless electric power steering system – for greater steering feel and response – is also available.

Much attention has been paid to reducing noise in the cabin. Improvements include outstanding noise insulation and optimisation of the car's aerodynamic performance.

Exceptional aero efficiency has been achieved thanks to the combined roof and side spoiler. As a result, the new Micra has achieved a Cd of 0.29 – top level for a hatchback.

Engine efficiency has also been a key objective in the development of the Micra Gen5. At launch, the car will offer the choice of a 0.9-litre turbocharged three-cylinder petrol engine and a 1.5-litre diesel, both developing 90hp. The range will be joined soon after by a naturally aspirated 73hp 1.0-litre petrol engine. These engines, together with efficient aerodynamics, mark another step forward in Nissan Intelligent Power.

The Micra Gen5 will revolutionise customer expectations in the B-segment by introducing a unique blend of striking design, new, intuitive technology and confident, agile performance. Its striking design and bold colour options will make it stand out from the crowd, while its interior roominess and advanced features will appeal to buyers looking for more from their B-segment hatchback, or to those downsizing.

The new Nissan Micra will be built in Europe at the Renault plant in Flins, France, as part of the Renault Nissan Alliance. Sales will start in Europe from March 2017.

Dacia Duster now available with Efficient Dual Clutch (EDC) automatic transmission

FOR the very first time, the multi-award-winning Dacia Duster is available with an automatic six-speed EDC (Efficient Dual Clutch) transmission, whilst still maintaining its shocking affordability. The Duster EDC is the most affordable automatic crossover available in the UK.

Combining the comfort and smoothness of an automatic gearbox with fuel economy and low CO2 emissions that are similar to those of a manual gearbox, the EDC transmission is certain to attract even more customers to the rugged SUV.

Drivers who specify the advanced transmission can now enjoy a more relaxing, simpler and smoother drive, which is boosted with the EDC transmission featuring Hill Start Assist. When moving away on a slope, the EDC control unit holds the brakes for sufficient time to allow the driver to apply the throttle before the vehicle rolls back.

Available on Lauréate and flagship Prestige 4x2 Duster variants, the automatic EDC gearbox is mated to the hugely-popular 1.5 dCi 110 turbodiesel engine. Perfectly complementing each other, the pairing returns fuel economy of 62.8mpg (NEDC combined) and CO2 emissions of 116g/km. The EDC-equipped Dacia Duster is available from £14,895 on-the-road and will go on sale in the UK in October.

Adding another string to the bow of the robust Duster, the availability of the EDC transmission builds on the raft of upgrades that were recently unveiled in the new 2017 model year version.

Spanning external and interior enhancements, the changes included new upholstery for all versions, DAB as standard from Ambiance trim upwards, new 'square effect' headlights, and the availability of new options such as rear parking sensors, part-leather 'Aspira' upholstery and 16-inch 'Tyrol' diamond-cut alloy wheels. A rear parking camera is also an option on Lauréate trim and above and the Duster's purposeful good looks can be set off with new Pennine Green metallic paint.

The updates also included the availability of the 1.2 TCe 125 engine on Lauréate trim and above, ensuring that customers now have the choice of a petrol or diesel variant at every trim level, and the arrival of the top-of-the-range 'Prestige' trim level.

On top of the Lauréate trim, Prestige receives 16-inch 'Tyrol' diamond-cut alloy wheels, MediaNav Evolution and rear-parking camera as standard, offering a price walk of £900 from Lauréate and representing a customer saving of £250.

The Duster range is priced from £9,495 on-the-road.

Kia to end the year with a host of new offers

AS KIA ascends into the fourth quarter of the year, the Korean car brand continues to offer private customers a huge £1,000 off the purchase of a new car when they choose to take a test drive of selected models of the Kia range between 1 October and 31 December 2016.

Customers who test drive any Kia model before the end of November will also be entered into a draw to win an all-expenses-paid trip Down Under to see the men's semi-finals of the Australian Open, which Kia Motors has proudly sponsored since 2002. This offer is available on all models, nationwide across Kia's 188 dealerships.

Quarter four also sees a range of finance offers, with an attractive 4.9 per cent APR across the whole range. The best-selling all-new Sportage now sees all grades benefiting from the £500 PCP deposit allowance. Kia's city car, the Picanto, also has enhanced finance offers, with the 'SE' and 'Sport' grades now enjoying £700 PCP deposit allowance.

The Kia Sorento comes with the £1,000 test drive saving and a £1,000 PCP deposit contribution. In addition, Caravan Club members buying a Sorento privately through the Kia dealer network continue to benefit from the offer of £500 towards Kia accessories. All grades have all-wheel drive, hill-start assist, trailer stability assist, reversing sensors and can haul between 2,000 and 2,500kg depending on the version, meaning this SUV is a perfect companion for caravanning adventures.

SW PENINSULA LEAGUE Division One (East) AXMINSTER TOWN 5 BOVEY TRACEY 2

AXMINSTER Town saw off a spirited Bovey fight back to bag three points and end their four game winless run.

Midfielder Nathan Warren opened the scoring in the 12th minute and Oscar Latas soon doubled the lead after good work from MoM Craig Every.

But the visitors refused to lay down and responded with a Joe Bushin double, the second a header from a corner, to square things up at 2-2.

The Tigers got their noses back in front before the interval thanks to a Jon Hurford header.

Liam Cleal restored the two-goal cushion seconds into the second-half having been unselfishly set-up by Latas and, with The Moorlanders down to 10-men for the final few minutes, substitute Callum Garrett rounded things off late on with his first goal of the season.

Next up for Axminster, still lying in third spot in the table, is a trip to Greenway Lane tomorrow night (Wednesday) to take on Budleigh Salterton.

This is followed by next Saturday's visit by Plymouth Marjon for a Devon Premier Cup first round tie (2pm).

AXMINSTER: Scott Wells-Burr, Craig Every, Mark Smale, Chris Duchensky, Elliot Dyer, Liam Cleal, Jonny Hurford, Nathan Warren, Danny Clay, Oscar Latas, Mark Scott. Subs: Callum Garrett, Tony Pinder, Ben Clay, Ben Vine, Luke Finn.

LIVERTON UTD 2 SIDMOUTH TOWN 4
SIDMOUTH gave a first start of the season to reserve team keeper Jack Burgess as Dan Stapleton was nursing a hip injury sustained in last week's win against Bovey Tracey.

They were put immediately on the back foot as they struggled to deal with playing into the swirling wind.

The first chance of the game fell to Torquay Utd non contract player Sean Finch who lost his marker but lobbed his shot marginally over the bar.

In the eighth minute Sidmouth were awarded a free kick 25 yards out, Dan Evans whipped in a terrific cross that was headed home by MoM Jamie Newbery.

The league's leading marksman and the team was forced to play a makeshift back line and to travel with just one substitute.

But on the positive side there were promising performances particularly from full back Prior and midfielder George Harwood.

Next Saturday 8th October Beer entertain Hatherleigh Town in the Devon Premier League Cup. Kick off is 2pm and sponsor for the game is Steamers Restaurant, Beer.

Division 5
SOUTH ZEAL 0 MILLWEY RISE 3
MILLWEY took the lead inside the first minute when Tyler Warren's chip was met by Levi Hoole who lashed the ball into the net writes Dick Sturch.

They maintained the pressure after a joint rash challenge from Swinger and Newbery. Finch made no mistake for his 13th goal of the season.

Midway through the half Sidmouth introduced Shaun Densham who immediately caused the hosts problems, and he rifled home the equaliser in the 68th minute.

By now Sidmouth had found an extra gear with Ryan Davies and Evans controlling the midfield and got their noses in front when Newbery tapped in. Densham scored again 10 minutes from time after a good work from Dan Norman.

Sidmouth: Burgess, Jones, Newbery (Capt), Clampin, White, Burrows, Davies, Evans, Antat, Orchard, Norman. Used Subs: Swinger, Wellman, Densham.

Sidmouth are in Devon Premier Cup first round action next Saturday with the visit of BUDLEIGH SALTERTON (2pm).

Macron Devon & Exeter League UPOTTERY 3 BEER ALBION 2

BEER Albion are still waiting to open their league account suffered 3-2 defeat to goals from Jamie Girton, Sam Winslade and Dan Scadden away at Premier Division new boys Uptonery writes Richard Honnor.

All five goals came inclosing quarter of an hour of the first half.

Player-manger Richard Walker put Beer ahead in the 31st minute chipping the Otters keeper from an acute angle after good work from Jack Prior.

But Beer surrendered their lead immediately when Uptonery broke quickly and a home midfielder squeezed his shot home from 18 yards.

But Beer went 2-1 ahead on 37 minutes with a route-one effort from Walker who again slotted home again from a tight angle. Three minutes later Uptonery were back level at 2-2 after the Beer defence gave the ball away the half way line.

A minute before the break the Otters grabbed the winner after a mix-up between keeper Mark Rooke and his defence.

The second half was relatively quiet affair. Uptonery continued to threaten and looked the better side but Walker created several chances for his colleagues who failed to capitalise.

Beer were missing key players through injury or unavailability and the team was forced to play a makeshift back line and to travel with just one substitute.

TWO goals in the last 15 minutes saw FARWAY UNITED come from behind to beat Charmouth 2-1 in the Division Two match at East-lee Park writes Howard Larcombe.

Brin Seward fired the Robins ahead but a Kristen Knight rocket from the edge of the area leveled things up.

Farway then missed a golden chance to edge in front when Ernie Stobbs' penalty was well saved by Charmouth keeper Kierran Bearpark. But Brad King popped up with the winner three minutes from time.

A Charlie Horn goal was all FARWAY UNITED RESERVES had to show from their trip to Henhayes where Crewkerne Rangers Reserves cruised to a 7-1 win.

HAWKCHURCH UNITED's trip to Pymore was postponed with no referee available.

Fine first season for new triathlon club

ABUSY last big weekend of the season marked a successful first year for the Pure Endurance Triathlon Club.

The club had 16 team members taking part in the ROADFORD LAKE Team Sprint Event (400m Swim, 13km Bike & 3.5km Run).

Meanwhile, Tom Priest took on the Bournemouth Marathon (26.6miles) and completed in 2hrs 57mins (14mins PB) 27th out of 11,000 people.

At Roadford Lake the weather was unpredictable with wind and rain one moment then sun the next.

Club spokesman Anbrend Dare said: "The club entered four teams, all the team members did amazingly well."

"We had some members who have been competing in triathlons for year and some in their first season and those that were in their first race."

"It was great to see everyone cheering for one another and seeing a fantastic team spirit."

"The Men's team did amazingly well in a very strong field. The Mixed A ripped up the course coming in first in their category, and the Mixed B put in a very

Minster challenge course record smashed

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

THREE Axe Valley Runners flew north for their first marathon in the glorious setting of LOCH NESS.

Canny Hart and Gillian Peach stuck together throughout and crossed the line at 4 hours 39 minutes while Robert Kerr plugged on to the finish in 5 hours 44 minutes.

Thrilled at their achievements, all vowed it to be their last marathon - unless successful in the 2017 London ballot!

Sunday saw the fifth MINSTER CHALLENGE race which is a challenging 12km of hills, country lanes, footpaths, fields, streams and wooded areas.

The winner, and first home for AVR, was Jake Smith who set a new course record of 45:29.

Next home for AVR in 2nd place was Matt Clist 48:38 followed by Ollie Caute 4th 49:47, Terry Emmett 5th 49:52, Rupert Pady 13th 57:49, Ian Apps 14th 58:44, Eleanor Wood 20th and 3rd female 1:03:26, William Watson 22nd 1:05:04, Alan Morbey 26th 1:05:40, James Ashforth 27th 1:05:41, Nick Adams 36th 1:09:33, Alan McLoughlin 40th 1:11:23, Andrew Sayers 41st 1:11:40, Anders Larsson 46th with a course PB 1:13:15 and Lizzie Ricketts 54th 1:18:15. A total of 82 runners took part.

Dan Rowe was the winner of the associated 5K race in 22:28, where there were some fine young AVR performances with Sam Eyre 2nd, 22:54; Tooley Eyre 5th, 24:17; Poppy Toozee 9th, 26:21; David Cooke 10th, 26:34; Elsa Wood 13th, 28:01 and Caitlin Toozee 14th, 28:09.

The Challenge was the last race in the East Devon Community Race Series which ended with a top four finish for AVR with Eleanor Wood winning followed by Matt Clist in 2nd, Terry Emmett 3rd and Clare Hansford 4th.

Patrick Devine-Wright took advantage of a work trip to Switzerland to run the TRAIL DES PATROUILLEERS mountain race on Saturday, completing the 55km route with 4,000m of climb in just over 10 hours.

The race began at 5am in the village of Crans-Montana skirting a northern loop around the glacier des plain morte (plain of death!) reaching almost 3000m in altitude before returning back to the start, and was for two or three person teams.

Devine-Wright said: "Thanks to the organisers for putting me in touch with Xavier from Reunion Island in the Indian Ocean, my running companion for the day."

"We were 12th team across the line, of the 32 teams to complete the course. It was an epic adventure with monster climbs and descents amidst enormous mountains, and comes highly recommended if anyone finds the hills of Devon just a bit small!"

CHARD ROAD RUNNERS with Paul Masters

WITH a trip up to Central England for the HEART OF ENGLAND FOREST MARATHON starting from Henley-in-Arden, Warwickshire, Jeremy Taylor was CRR's sole representative for this self-navigation race.

Jeremy set out fine better footing in the rain as the route started to get muddy by the mile, picking up the pace in the second half of the 26.2 miles crossing the line

Keech aiming to make breakthrough

LOCAL golfer Sophie Keech announced her intentions of becoming one of Europe's elite lady golfers with a magnificent 4th place finish at the recent Elisefarm Ladies Open in Sweden – one of a series of 15 Ladies European Tour Access events.

After turning professional at the end of the 2015 season, Sophie took every opportunity once called upon from a waiting list of nearly 200 ladies.

Having now played in seven events, she has made four times cuts with her previous best, a joint 17th in Belgium, being outgunned last week in Sweden after the 20-year-old carded outstanding scores of 70-70-73 to finish -3, rounds which included 14 birdies.

Sophie leaves for Strasbourg in France later this week for Round 12. With events after this in The Azroes, back in England at Stoke by Nayland, and Spain at the end of October.

She will be looking to consistently challenge in these events in order to gain further ranking points in a bold bid to break into the elite Ladies European Tour.

Can you Sponsor Sophie?

SOPHIE is currently balancing a daytime job with much time spent away on the European Golf Circuit. All the money she is earning is going towards her golf, an extremely costly experience.

With the undoubted progress Sophie is making, any individual or business in the local area who would be able to sponsor Sophie, however big or small, would be very much appreciated.

Now professional, Sophie can advertise any company logo on her golf equipment or clothing.

Chard crushed on north coast

Weston 70 Chard 0

South West One

AFTER Saturday's match Chard Coach Simon Jenkins made the following comments: "In simple terms Chard were outclassed by a very slick and pacy Weston team who have moved away from their traditional forward game to a much more expansive approach."

The Chard forwards had parity, and often the upper hand, in many of the scrums and Weston were penalised for illegal scrummaging on several occasions.

However, the Weston backs were top class and scored 11 of the 12 tries - the young and inexperienced Chard back division had no answer on the day.

There were some positives in that captain for the day Luke Aplin and Max Gosden were again outstanding, and the two debutant youngsters

Liam Mustchin and Murray Squire brought the average age of the side down to just over 20.

"The effort was there, but at times you just have to put your hand up and accept that you have been beaten by a much better side," concluded Jenkins.

Next Saturday Chard are away at Clevedon and will be hoping that their squad will be strengthened by the return of, amongst others, skipper Ryan Hellier and full back Jon Humphrey

Chard 36 Somerton 13

Somerset Three South

SOMERTON took an early lead with a couple of penalty kicks and looked dangerous particularly when their fly half had the ball, but as the game developed it only looked a matter of time before the young Chard gained the upper hand.

This they did on the half hour when a catch and drive from a line-out ended with Joel Nicholls crossing for the first try. Just before the break they added further tries from Brian Sugar and Sam Moulard. George Read, who was kicking well out of hand, had an off day with his place kicks but Chard still led 15-6 at the break.

In the 2nd half Chard increased their lead with a successful kick from Read. The forwards were now supplying the backs with an endless supply of ball and they then began to run the ball whenever possible and Emile Szydelko, in particular, had a field day running in three tries.

Chard second row forward Ash Wilson-Bryant had a terrific game and looks to have a huge amount of potential winning virtually every line-out as well as being quick round the field

Somerton had a player sent to the bin for dangerous play but they did manage a late consolation try.

Chard 2nd xv have no game next weekend.

Yatton 3rds 50 Chard 3rds 5

Somerset Three South

Chard travelled with a bare 15 players and adjustments had to be made when skipper Wayne Lewis realised there were only four forwards amongst them!

Chard struggled up the slope in the first half and were 32-0 down at half time.

In the 2nd half Chard got on the score sheet when some good play from Kevin George resulted in a try for Andy McKerrow, but Yatton were much the stronger and ran out comfortable winners.

Next Saturday Chard are away at Cheddar 2nds.

Six-hit Hornets

Honiton Hornets 6 Exe 5ths 1

HONITON made three changes to last week's team with Izzy Stribling and Helen French making their debuts while Vanessa Trude returned on the left wing.

Whilst the Hornets had the majority of the ball in the first half the Exe keeper made some great saves and it was Exe who took the lead when they managed to take advantage of a high first shot clearance from the Hornets.

The Hornets equalised before half-time through Jean Gormley who managed to slot it in the corner from a really tight angle.

In the second half Honiton maintained the intensity of their attacks and were awarded with five more goals.

Most notable were a strong open hand shot from Kat Tucker from the top of the circle while Stribling lifted a shot over the keeper's left glove and Trude slotted in a long cross field pass into the left corner of the goal. Trude then completed her hat trick.

There were great performances across the pitch, but joint players of the match were Helen French and Denise Underhill with Izzy Stribling a vote behind.

Honiton Hornets are always keen to welcome new players to their friendly and competitive team, see wcwhl.co.uk for contact details.

Win double in friendlies

HONITON with Julie Grant

THE indoor season began with the two captains Tony and Yvonne Williams playing on winning rinks.

Unfortunately for Tony his mens' team lost heavily 94-61 in the friendly against the ladies. Yvonne was on the top rink with Gloria Randall, Tracy Lambert & Julie Grant 34-6.

Tony, with Ian McKenzie, Mike Critchley & Peter Baker did win 23-17 and then, later in the week, the men had a star baker as Peter Baker was, once again, top rink in the selected ladies versus men match.

The men got their revenge in this competitive game and won easily 100-52, winning on three rinks and drawing on one.

Men's top rink was Alan Fuller, Malcolm Seaborn, Terry House & Peter Baker 30 -9, the best of the ladies (16-16) were Ann Brown, Ann Hillyear, Heather Chambers & Julie Grant.

Honiton started the season well in the two mixed friendlies winning at home and away. Against OTTERTY ST MARY Honiton won 101-57, top rink Di Hawkins, Tony Williams, Jimmy Smith & Rita Barwick 31-10.

Honiton won 53-51 away at EXONIA, top rinks were Myra Singleton, Bob Mackintosh, Judith Broom & Heather Chambers 25-17 and Yvonne Williams, Richard Bland, Tony Williams & Margaret Bright 21-13.

Tie for silver place

ELEVEN members kicked off their Royak Oak winter League on a very low and clear River Isle on Sunday but despite the conditions some decent catches were recorded.

Jamie Rich had a lovely day in peg 14 to win with 12lb 8oz of chublets, dace, roach and gudgeon, Jamie caught on the pole and caster.

There was a tie for second place with Rich Studley on peg 124 and Graham Field on peg 126 both catching 6lb 2oz; Rich's weight consisted of some nice roach while Graham caught lots of small fish for his weight.

The first V.E.S. Precision match is on Sunday and the draw is at the pub between 8.30 and 9am.

1st Jamie Rich (Against Men and Fish) - 12lb 8oz, 2nd Rich Studley (Ilminster) & Graham Field (Taunton) both 6lb 2oz.

Sections; A - Karl Aplin (Ilminster) - 2lb 7oz, B - John Dursley (Enterprise Angling) - 4lb 3oz.

◆ GREENS' GIRLS: Seaton Town U14s girls played in their first ever game together recently and produced a fine 1-1 draw against Stoke Gabriel, and in the end, were unlucky not to win the game. After a goal less first-half Stoke took the lead but Seaton grabbed a deserved equaliser when Jenna Markham was fouled in the penalty area and Min Dack smashed home the resulting penalty.
